

DEVELOPING REMARKABLE LEADERSHIP IN YOUR COMPANY

Join us on May 21 for an interactive session, led by Kevin Eikenberry, focused on the major myths and mistakes made in leadership development efforts, both organizationally, and as an individual leader. You'll be able to apply these lessons to the leadership development challenges in your organization and for yourself. We will explore the competencies of highly effective leaders, including:

1. Championing change
2. Communicating powerfully
3. Developing others
4. Building relationships
5. Focusing on customers
6. Influencing with impact
7. Think innovatively
8. Valuing collaboration and teamwork
9. Solving problems and making decisions
10. Taking responsibility and accountability
11. Managing projects and processes successfully
12. Setting goals and supporting goal achievement

Following Kevin's discussion, Bill Bagley, HR Director with Barnes Dennig, and experienced consultant on leadership development, will discuss how to put these competencies into place within your construction company.

You will leave better equipped to use your experience and strengths as a springboard to greater success in your role as a leader in the construction industry. Join us for this enjoyable, enlightening and practical session!
