

Presents Gail Perry

Gail Perry, MBA, CFRE, best selling author of Fired-Up Fundraising: Turn Board Passion into Action. She will share her practical, refreshing, out-of-the-box approach to fundraising that has helped her become a non-profit philanthropy expert and has helped organizations raise over $200 million - and counting.

How Smart Fundraisers Are Finding Opportunities in a Chaotic Economy

WEDNESDAY, MAY 13, 2009

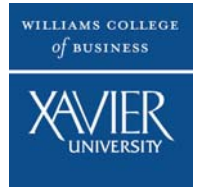

7:30 am - Registration and Breakfast
8:00 - 11:30 am - Program

Cintas Center at Xavier University
1624 Herald Avenue • Cincinnati, OH 45207

Supporting Sponsor:

Contributing Sponsors:

Barnes Dennig presents
2009 Not-For-Profit Annual Seminar

How Smart Fundraisers Are Finding Opportunities in a Chaotic Economy

Wednesday, May 13, 2009

7:30 am - 8:00 am - Registration and Breakfast

8:00 am - 11:30 am - Program

Cintas Center at Xavier University
1624 Herald Avenue, Cincinnati, OH 45242
(This event is presented free of charge - 4.2 hours of CPE)

Join us to hear break-through strategies non-profits should employ now to succeed during tough economic times. During this session, Gail will motivate your board members and help them understand their role in making fundraising a success. In addition she will discuss innovative ways to identify, cultivate, make the ask and how to thank donors for their contributions.

Seating is limited so REGISTER TODAY at:
www.BarnesDennig.com/seminars.php

Or call to register: 513.241.8313

Barnes Dennig
441 Vine Street, Suite 2000
Cincinnati, Ohio 45202

